There being no other nomination, the clerk was instructed to cast the vote of the board for Richardson, who was declared elected.

CARD OF THANKS.

Rev. Mr. Wagg Expresses Gratitude To His "Pounders."

Mr. Editor:—Yesterday evening May 26th, myself and family were enjoying the quiet of our pleasant home on McCulloch street. We were variously employed. I was in the family room reading Bible stories to the small children, wife was in the hall reading the daily papers, and the larger children were in the parlor amusing themselves at the piano; there were no signs of the coming storm, and as far as we knew the evening was to pass off as usual; but all suddenly the quiet was broken, and our home was invaded by a whole regiment of the Centenary congregation. The procession was led by Mr. T. A. Glascock and Miss Sallie Love, who entered the house unceremoniously, they were closely followed by seventy-five or more of as highly cultured and fine looking ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls, as can be found in any land, and I would like to give all their names but space forbids; I will not forget them at the throne of grace.

Moreover, Mr. Editor. They were armed not with cannon and musketry, however, but in the rear of the procession, which was brought up by Mr. Barnes, was a cart load of groceries, consisting of flour, hams, sugar, coffee, in fact something of almost everything nice in this line that is to be found on the market.

Now we have no words to express our heartfelt gratitude and high sense of appreciation for such tokens of kindness. And I am sure if these dear people knew how much their kind thoughtfulness is appreciated by their pastor and his wife, and what an encouragement it is to him to try to serve them better, they would at least in a measure feel repaid.

With a deep sense of gratitude to these dear friends,

I am sincerely,
T. E. Wagg.

DULL MONOTONY BROKEN

In the Telegram Office by the Gyrations of His Majesty "Blinky."

John Quincy Adams Honeycutt, alias "Blinky," who performs the functions of His Plutonian Majesty in the Telegram job office, is unwell today, we regret to mention. Feeling indisposed this morning, he was persuaded by some of the boys to take a seidlitz powder. Procuring one from the drug store, "Blinky" came back to the office to take it, swallowing the two antagonistic powders separately. We would be pleased to give a description of the immediate scene which followed, but are unable to do so owing to the poverty of the language.

The paste pot upset itself.

The types clicked in glee.

The imposing block cast off its stony aspect and shook its sides with merriment.

And the presses laughed.

Business in the Telegram office suspended for awhile.

Back from Richmond.

Messrs. C. H. Ireland and G. S. Boren returned last evening from Richmond where they went to confer with the Southern authorities concerning the reduction of rates to the fireman's tournament and gala week. They, with President McNeill, laid the matter before the officials and expect favorable action by them.

THE BLAME HAS BEEN FIXED

Upon The Reading Railroad For The Late Terrible Wreck.

VERDICT OF CORONER'S JURY

Is That The Employes Made The Mistake By Running Two Sections of The Train.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Norristown, N. J., May 27—The coroner's jury returned a verdict this morning that the Reading Railroad is responsible for the Exeter wreck. It says the employes made the mistake of running two sections of the train.

A HORRIBLE DEATH.

Suicide By Burning After Attempt at Drowning.

Special to the Telegram.

Goldston, N. C., May 27—Mrs. Mary Phillips who lived at Carbonton, N.C., has for some time been slightly demented. She frequently spoke of jumping in the river, but she was easily controlled. Tuesday mo[illegible]g she spoke of going to the river, but was told to go back into the house. In a few moments she appeared at the door, her clothes aflame. She ran to the well and there fell unconscious. Her body was terribly burned. She died Wednesday morning She said she set herself on fire, because they would not let her drown herself. She leaves several children.

A LIBERAL POUNDING.

Members of Centenary Encourage Their Pastor.

Shortly before 9 o'clock last evening Rev. and Mrs. T. E. Wagg found themselves the happily surprised host and hostess of a represenative part of the congregation of Centenary Methodist church, of which Mr. Wagg is pastor. The crowd had gathered at Barnes' store, corner Asheboro and McCulloch streets, a short distance from the parsonage, and at the appointed hour, marched without notice to their pastor's home to take possession of it and give an old-fashioned, bounteous pounding. Taken by surprise, every member of the family went to work in earnest and in a remarkably short time had provided the fifty or more self-invited guests with chairs in the parlor, hall and sitting room.

The younger contingent occupied the parlor where, after the rendition of two each of beautiful vocal and instrumental solos by Mr. and Mrs. Wagg's accomplished daughter, Miss Gertrude, they played interesting and amusing games until 10:30 o'clock.

The evening will be long remembered by both pounded and pounders; and the latter will testify that, as impromptu entertainers, the former have few equals.

THE DREYFUS MATTER.

Prisoner Will Again Go Before the Court Martial.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, May 27—The rumor that the president of the civil section of the court of cassation had reported to the president of the court of cassation in favor of a revision of the Dreyfus trial and sending the prisoner again before the court martial, is confirmed this afternoon by a direct statement that such is the case.

In Court.

The jury in the Jordan and Noble vs. Greensboro Furnace Company case, the argument in which was finished yesterday afternoon, failed to agree until about 8 o'clock this morning when they rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs, for $1,500. They slept in the jury room last night.

The case of Jones vs. City of Greensboro, for alleged injuries received by the falling of a limb, was taken up this morning and will in all probability be finished this afternoon.

Having lost his fortune of $100,000, Sohn Stone, formerly a leading democrat, cut his throat and died at Deposit, N. Y.

AT WASHINGTON.

Several Candidates For The Speakership in The City.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, May 27—Several candidates for the speakership of the house of representatives have been in Washington during jubilee week. The most prominent have been Representatives Hopkins, of Illinois, and Sherman, of New York. Congressman Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, has also been in Washington. The candidacy of Representative Sherman for the speakership is being pushed with energy, and so far as can be told at this early stage, he appears to have a lead over both Congressmen Hopkins and Henderson. Among New York politicians, it is not thought the candidacy of Mr. Payne will cut much figure, nor will it hinder the other New York representative from securing the early n solid delegation from his own state. The belief is here that later on Mr. Payne will withdraw from the contest.

Governor Tunnell and staff, who came to Washington to take part in the jubilee festivities, have returned to Delaware. The members of the party while here were seen, and they gave it as their opinion that unless the two republicans factions get together in the state that Delaware will go democratic at the coming national election. Governor Tunnell is of the opinion that Bryan may not get the Delaware delegation in the national convention, as a majority of the democratic voters in the state are opposed to the free coinage of silver issue. He says that there is a sentiment in the state for Ex-Senator Gorman, of Maryland, and that if he announces himself as a candidate for the nomination that he may get the Delaware delegation in the next convention.

A BEAUTIFUL CHARACTER.

In the Trinity Archive for June, Dr. Jno. C. Kilgo contributes a sketch on the life and character of the late lamented William H. Branson. At the close of the biography occurs the following beautiful passage:

"He was a true man. His appearance spoke out the magnificence of his character. Tall and erect, weighing nearly two hundred pounds, with a large head, broad brow, bright and expressive eye, strong features, and noble movement, he was the embodiment of high honor and noble impulses. He had the model figure of a hero. God does not build such temples in which to house bats; the occupant of such a divine structure has exalted rights which, if obeyed, makes him God's nobleman. William H. Branson obeyed them. He was just reaching up to that period of life when everything is full of glad prophecies. All the years of his life were years of apparent preparation, and his friends rejoiced that the depth and breadth of the foundation measured an immense future. In the glow of these hopes, death came to him while he was in the path of duty, the only path in which he ever made a foot-print. A darker shadow never fell on any community than the one that came to the city of Durham when, on the seventh day of April, 1899, William H. Branson, by a fearful accident, was taken away. In him seemed to be unborn history. It will have its birth in higher realms, for there is no cessation of life. Noble powers may not have sufficient time in this life, they will get it in the life beyond."

Three white men in Texas have just been lynched because "it was said" they had aided a murder to escape. An organized band of ruffians at Griffin, Georgia, after running law abiding negroes out of towns, are "warning" the best white men of the town to leave also. Let it be repeated and emphasized that if mob law is tolerated it cannot be made to observe the "color line" or to find its victims only in criminals known to be guilty of infamous crimes. From swinging up the negro rapist who has been identified by his victim, to hanging three white men "suspected" of aiding a murderer to escape—that is the progress of lynch law.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Lynch law is dangerous. As long as the mob is permitted to assemble and take upon itself the power of administering justice, the liberties of the best element of the people are not safe. We all know that. But what is the remedy?

In the New York conference of the A. M. E. church, which finished its session Thursday, H. C. C. Astwood, former minister to San Domingo, addressed the meeting and in the course of his speech admitted that he had been correctly reported in the newspapers recently as having said that lynching was no worse than the crime of rape and added:

'If I am to be unfrocked, why, let that come. I believe that raping is as bad as lynching. I would rather defend a woman than a criminal. I, for one, do not stand up for murder."

The Volcano, a Honolulu newspaper announces and denounces the presence of Commissary General Eagan in that town. After various denunciatory expressions the newspaper thus disposes of him: "He was dismissed from the American army by court martial. The Volcano dismsses him from its columns." The Volcano's phenomenal namesake cannot equal the general's fire-spitting proclivities and our Honolulu contemporary should be very careful lest it goad the cussing general to an eruption.

Peter Phelan is dying in a New York hospital from the effects of drinking 30 cups of tea a day.

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well: now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

THINK TO PROFIT.

Good Sunday Reading For Telegram Readers.

"And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?" Luke 12:25.

Lots of people spend valuable time in thinking on things that bring no profit. It is wonderful the amount of pleasure obtained from right thought; and equally so, the amount of disquietude that is the consequence of wrong thinking. No one understood this better than the Savior and the advice of the text, if taken by the folks given to the use of much time in thinking on the "has beens" and the "what might have beens," would bring great relief. The man or woman who feels that a wrong choice was made at marriage ought to remember that either might have done worse; and if this be not true, to sit and think every day that they might have done better is positively unnecessary, foolish and unprofitable. When the judge took the drink of water from Maud Muller and the latter fell in love with the judge, and both went to thinking how nice it would have been had they met earlier and formed a matrimonial alliance, each deserved to be attached for contempt; especially the judge. But we will leave this incident to be discussed later by Dr. Hillis of Plymouth Church. He is an adept on this style of preaching.

"Consider the lilies how they grow; they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these." The idea is, that if God looks after these things how much more certain will he look after His creatures when they go on doing the work that is laid out for each one. Do not worry over what you shall eat or drink; and above all, be not possessed of a "doubtful mind." Believe all the time, in the face of every obstacle, that it will be well with you if your trust is in Him. Men who have the disposition to think all the time of how they are to live, never in the real sense, have an actual existence. It is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. And what is this kingdom? It is righteousness, joy and peace in the Holy Ghost. And when you have sought and obtained it all other things necessary will be added. This is a fact. Then where is the need of worrying when you have such a promise. The world is full of men who spend time thinking on judgments and notes that are barred by the statute of limitations. The merchant who has failed, the lawyer or doctor who has not had the clients or patients necessary to meet expenses, should profit by their mistakes and come again; but if it is discovered that they have missed their calling let them get into something else, even if it be sawing wood. And you may serve your generation that way and be blessed of God. But as sure as you born if you take time in thinking on these mistakes, and doing nothing to rectify same, you will drop out of the race, and the good to humanity you will be in this condition will be no more than if you were in the grave. Think a moment, that to brood over disappointment brings the same degree of success attained in attempting to add to your stature. Think on nobler things. "Commit thy way unto the Lord, and He shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light and thy judgment as the noonday." "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." Therefore, think to profit. You are responsible for your thoughts.

"That was a narrow escape, old man," remarked Cinchly as he picked up the fellow who had been struck by a trolley, "how do you feel?" "Well, I'll acknowledge that I feel a trifle run down," chuckled the other as he leisurely betook himself away.

If you suffer from tenderness or fullness on the right side, pains under shoulder-blade, constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, and feel dull, heavy and sleepy, your liver is torpid and congested. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will cure you promptly, pleasantly and permanently by removing the congestion and causing the bile ducts to open and flow naturally. They are good pills. Howard Gardner.

Hoax—"Winters married a boarding house keeper, and now he's suing for a divorce." Joax—"Has he any grounds?" "Yep, he saved them out of a cup of coffee she made to show the court why he wants the divorce."

Little, neglected scratches and wounds frequently result in blood-poisoning. Better heal them quickly with DeWitt's Witch Havel Salve, a thoroughly anti-septic application with a record of always curing piles, old ulcers, sores, cuts, wounds and skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

New York's senate passed a bill appropriating $75,000 to celebrate Admiral Dewey's return.

Pneumonia, la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping-cough readily yield to One Minute Cough Cure. Use this remedy in time and save a doctor's bill—or the undertaker's. Howard Gardner.

Rheumatism Cured.

My wife has used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with great relief, and I can recommend it as a splendid liniment for rheumatism and other household use for which we have found it valuable.—W. J. Cuyler, Red Creek, N. Y.

Mr. Cuyler is one of the leading merchants of this village and one of the most prominent men in this vicinity.—W. G. Phippin, Editor Red Creek Herald. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Governor Jones, of Arkansas, has rescinded a former order, and will now welcome "all honest and peaceable laborers" from others states.

One of Colonel Griggsby's brave Wyoming Rough Riders, Elliott W. Brown, was drowned fording a creek near Harrison, Neb.

The new torpedo boat Dahlgren will be laundhed at Bath, Me., on Monday next.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson will not be a candidate for senator from Iowa.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children.—W. A. Stroud, Popomoke City, Md. For sale by C. E. Holton.

A Frankford prohibitionist won't eat rye bread because whiskey is made from rye. His favorite diet is water crackers.

People who have once taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers will never have anything else. They are the "famous little pills" for torpid liver and all irregularities of the system. Howard Gardner.

Procrastination is not the only thief of time. Pickpockets always evince a preferences for watches.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

It is something besides bad air that makes a woman faint in a close theatre. A well woman wouldn't faint. The woman who easily grows faint and dizzy—who has palpitation of the heart—a "stuffy" feeling—hot flushes—nervous troubles, better look for the cause in her digestive system or in the distinctly feminine organism—maybe in both.

Women who are not quite well and don't know just what is the matter, and women who are really sick and don't know exactly what is the matter should write at once to Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., stating their symptoms in detail. They will be advised by Dr. Pierce without charge.

Dr. Pierce is, and for over thirty years has been, chief consulting physician in the world-renowned Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

He has treated and cured more suffering women than any other physician in the world, and more of his "Favorite Prescription," for the correction and cure of all disorders and diseases of the feminine organs, except cancer, has been sold than of all other similar medicines.

Write to Dr. Pierce. If his medicines are what you need he will tell you so, if they are not what you need he will honestly say so and will tell you what to do. Dr. Pierce's position is a sufficient guarantee that his advice will not be biased by the hope of selling you a few bottles of medicine.

If you wish to study up your own case Dr. Pierce will send you, free of all cost, a paper-bound copy of his great 1000-page book, the "Common Sense Medical Adviser," of which over 750,000 were sold at $1.50 a copy. All that Dr. Pierce asks is that you send 21 one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only. If you prefer the book in fine French cloth send 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you have piles, CURE them. No use undergoing horrible operations that simply remove the results of the disease without disturbing the disease itself. Place your confidence in DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It has never failed to cure OTHERS. It will not fail to cure YOU. Howard Gardner.

She—"Don't you think, dear, that this new gown comes rather low?" He—"Well, judging by the bill I received, I think it comes rather high."

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Crowning Virtue.

BELTON, Mo., July 27.
For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so despondent I had given up all hopes of a cure. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.
MRS. MINNIE LITTLE.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

LADIES' ADVISORY DEPARTMENT. For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, Ladies' Advisory Dep't, The CHATTANOOGA MEDICINE CO., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Easy to Put on---Easy to Take off

There's "a something" about our clothes to measure that you don't find in others—they slip on easy, they slip off easy—and most important, they fit. Let us make your next suit—put it on, walk down street with it, people will look after you and admire it. Tell your friends that you paid only $15 or $20 for it and they won't believe it. Don't seem credible. Tell them it cost anywhere from $25 to $40—they'll believe that, while your pocketbook has at least $10 the best of it. "A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W.M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best.
